

Mission

SOFITEC AERO is an experienced international organization in aeronautics sector, being one of main references manufacturing of composite material structures, structural metal bonding, manufacturing and equipment of metallic elementary parts, assembly and subassembly. In addition, in our work locations are carried out associated non destructive tests (ultrasonic inspection, penetrant testing...), heat treating, surface treatment of metal parts and composites, stapling of control cables and design, manufacturing, maintenance and periodic reviews of tooling, increasing the trusts of interested parts thanks to obtained identity about total quality, job safety and taking care with environment.

Vision

Its visión is to be the first reference manufacturing aerostructures., increasing its capacity to be the best developer of integrated solutions in projects of composite materials, metallic and assembly. SOFITEC AERO wants to achieve the máximo satisfaction of its clients throughout the compliance and superation of all apply requirements, providing added value to interested parts and exhibiting a strong commitment with environment protection, nourishing by client and supplier contributions, being at the forefront of the best technologies and adopting innovative measures.

Values

The main value of SOFITEC AERO is the people that it is composed, which they provide to company the responsibility, proactivity, perseverance and motivation at all levels to fulfill the mission and objectives. The commitment, initiative, the high qualification and the training actions that SOFITEC AERO provides, favor the daily job excellence and continuous improvement in processes and, at consequence, for company.

That's why SOFITEC AERO High Direction is committed to provide the best skill for professional practice within their field of activity, observing the following points:

- Referencing this policy to comply with quality and environment objectives, adding a continuous improvement commitment to achieve the excellence related with quality and environmental performance, prevention of pollution and specific taking care of environment, relate all with our context.
- Fullfilling all clients requirements, as well as legal, quality, safety and environmental requisments that are applicable to practically all the services provided. Assist to the rest of interested parts in the search for an adequate development within our environment.
- Implement the necessary actions (including an adequate risk management) to achieve the planned results

The High Direction of SOFITEC AERO ensures that this policy is understood by the company in all their levels, keeping as documented information and transmitting it throughout its several communication media.

May 4th, 2021

José Miguel Hernández
General Director - CEO

Alberto Fernández
Quality Director